NEW YORK, AVEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1894.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT

THREE MEN ROASTED,

Father and Son Burned to Death in a Rivington Street Blaze.

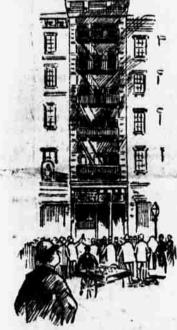

A BRAVE FIREMAN SENSELESS

Knecked from the Ladder by One of the Victims, Who Jumped Five Stories.

TWENTY FAMILIES HOMELESS.

Fire, Panic and Accidents in Several Other Sections of the City.

Three persons were killed, and one a result of a fire which broke out in a sweater-shop at 226 Rivilngton street at I o'clock this morning. The loss on the building, which was gutted, and on its contents, is estimated at $20,000.

While this fire was in progress an-other broke out at 31 Goerck street, a six-story double-decker tenement-house This fire was in the same fire district as the other, and as all the engines district had been sent Rivington street fire, it was necessary to call men and apparatus from adjoining districts to combat the Goerch street outbreak. There was a panic among the tenants of 31 Goerck street and some of them were bruised in the scramble to get out. A fireman was hurt there by falling from a ladder. The loss at this fire is estimated at $17,000. About midnight fire broke out at 32 Broadway, where it did damage esti-

There were several smaller fires, and altogether it was a lively night for the green of the lower districts of the city. WERE ROASTED ALIVE.

Appalling Sight Witnessed at the Rivington Street Blaze. A father and his two sons lost their teriously in the six-story brick building at 226 Rivington street about 2 o'clock

Mercio Levine, fifty-three years old. Joseph Levine, eighteen years old. Elias Levine, sixteen years of age. Bimothy Collins, a fireman, was injured, save the unfortunate three. The Rivington street house was occupied entirely by sweat-shops, with the exception of the second floor, where there is a synagogue, and a portion of brew school for boys. It is claimed for the place, however, that the shops were

He is now in the hospital with his chest crushed in as a result of his efforts to

of the better class, and no one was supposed to live in the bouse. In spite of that fact there were at least eight men in the building last night. If, as claimed, they were watch-mon, they must have been careless of their duties. Otherwise it is impossible to conceive how so many lives could have been sucrificed. Nicholas Muller, an expressman, of 152 Rivington street, first discovered the fire and sent in the alarm. It was so warm last night that, instead of remaining home he slept in an express wagon that ex-Pres was drawn up in front of the building that was afterwards burned out. Just at 2 o'clock he was awakened by a bright light, which he at first thought as the dawn of morning. He sat up in here that this! Chargoce of the Mosquito Reserthe wagon to rub his eyes, and then, as various who is now in Kingston, Januaria will be became fully aroused be discovered shirtly come to Mexico to ark for protection for he became fully aroused, he discovered that what he thought was the sun shin-that what he thought was the sun shin-that down upon him was a great burst of flame that came from the third-story him that came from the third-story him. indows of the sweat-shop.

Wanted in Chicage and Other Bought Furniture and a Safe on the Detectives Holland, Vallely and Sheriian, of Inspector McLaughlin's staff, this morning arrested a quartet at May's Hotel in Twenty-eighth street. They are William Raymond, alias Billy Rheinhart, twenty-seven/ years old; Charles Belmont, alias Frank Stewart, twenty-six years old; Kitty Raymond, alias Kitty Myers, twenty-two ears old, and Annie Belmont, alias Alice Stewart, went-three years old, all of Chicago. All were arrested upon advices from Chief of the Chicago Detective Bureau John D. Shea. The latter is anxious to have them returned to Chicago for complicity in an alleged daring badger game, in which Clause Ravenau, wealthy business man of Chicago, was the victim to the tune of $3,000. Several days ago Ravenan reported to Chief Shea that he had been victimized Chief Shea that he had been victimized by four people, the descriptions of which tally exactly with those arrested here to-day. He alleged that he became ac-quainted with the two women and they invited him to their room. While there the two men appeared, and after the usual game of talk relieved him of $3,000, $1,900 in cash, and a certified check for $1,100 upon the First National Bank, of Chicago.

si,390 in cash and a certined check for Si,100 upon the First National Bank, of Chicago.

The quartet then disappeared, and when next heard of were in St. Louis. They got wind of their discovery, however, and before they could be located fied to Kansas City. They were traced to that point, and Chief of Detectives Spears, of that place, soon located them. Again they were informed by some means of their identity being known, and just as Spears was about to arrest them they again skipped. It was supposed that they had come to New York. A description was immediately telegraphed to Inspector McLaughlin, and at 10 o'clock this morning his men pounced down on them just as they were preparing to leave the house.

When placed under arrest all of them stoutly denied their guilt. They were taken to Police Headquarters where their photographs were taken for the Rogues' Gallery. When searched $1.70 was found in Raymond's possession, and $2.90 on Belmont.

was found in Raymond's possession, and $2.90 on Belmont.

Both men and women were well dressed and wore magnificent jewelry. Mrs. Raymond is rather tail, with black curly hair, and is very pretty. The other woman is small in stature, and looks much older than she claims to be. Raymond said to an "Evening World" reporter this afternoon that he had not been in Chicago for over a year, and neither had his companions. He said they had been at May's Hotel for several weeks, and were here seeing the sights. He denied all knowledge of any such a man as Clause Ravenau, and said there had been soms mistake.

All four were taken to the Tombs. Police Court this afternoon and arraigned before Justice Martin. Lawyers Evans and O'Reilly appeared for them. They pleaded not guilty, and were held.

Lawyer Evans immediately started ut to find Justice Beach, of the Su-reme Court, to procure a writ of na-eas corpus. He holds that there is out enough evidence upon which to old his clients.

PIETRO TONNINI DEAD.

HeWas President of the San Marin Republic.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN MARINO, Aug. 29.—Pietro Tonnini, President of the Republic of San Marino, is dead.

public in the world and one of the most ancients states in Europe. The republic s inclosed on all sides by the provinces of Italy, and has an area of only twentyone square miles. It consists of a craggy mountain, about 3,200 feet high, on which is the town, and near it are four or five villages. San Marino was built around a hermitage founded in the year 41, and Is accessible by only one road. The total population is less than 8,000, of whom 5,000 are in the town. The army consists of 350 men.

NO FIGHTS, SAYS SCHIEREN

He Will Consult the Corporation Counsel Regarding Seaside Bouts. Police Commissioner Welles, of Brooklyn, made a verbal report to Mayor Schieren to-day of the exhibition at th Seaside Athletic Club, at Coney Island, on Mnoday night.

Mr. Welles said that while he did not approve of such shows he saw nothing during the evening which, in 'dis indgment, would warrant coline interferment. would warrant online interference.

Later in the day Mayor Schicren, in commenting on the matter, said that he thoroughly disapproved of prize-fighting and intended to do all he could to stop it within the city limits. All such exhibitions in future would be investigated beforchand, and he would endeavor to see that the law was enforced.

forced.

He added that Justice Gaynor's decision compelling him to issue a license to the Seaside Athletic Club was, unfortunate, and that he intended to consult with the Corporation Counsel, with a view to stopping such shows in future.

If necessary he would not that additional city ordinances be passed to as to give the police greater powers.

Michener Quoted as Saying He Does Not Want a Renomination.

(By Associated Fress.) (B) Associated Frest.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The Post states that Gen. L. T. Michener, who managed Gen. Harrison's campaign at both conventions which nominated him, is authority for the statement that the ex-Fresident does not desire a renomination.

Chief Clarence Wants Protection

(B) Associated Press.)
CITY OF MENICO, Aug. 25,--It is reported

In another minute he was at the corner | MR LENAN 22 William at . was cured of in-Not a battery. Call or write. 1122 B' way. **

A Quartet of Them Arrested at Harris Had a Knack of Buying Harry Reed Wins the First

Same Easy Plan.

An Attempt to Be Made to Release As "Manager C. J. Weldon" He THE TALENT IN HIGH GLEE. Made Imaginary Theatrical Dates.

> The police are looking for Maurice E. Starter Rowe Arrested for an Harris, who is wanted for robbing va rious Maiden lane jewellers. William Barthman, jeweller, of Maiden lane and Broadway, submitted an affidavit to Jus tice Martin, at the Tombs Police Court on which a warrant for Harris's arres was issued.

Harris is about swenty-six years old and was well known in amateur dramatic circles in Brooklyn. He was a moved in good society. In July he fortably. opened an office at 4 Court street, Brooklyn, and put a sign on the door which read: "Fidelity Waten and Jewelry Company."

He represented to Jeweller Barthman that he had a customer for a handsome cinch, but the prohibitive odds pre that he had a customer for a handsome marquise ring, valued at $180. He took the ring on memorandum.

Alois Köhn & Co., Il Maiden lane, next received a visit from him. He ordered $12 worth of goods and paid for them. Then he ordered more and gave a check on the City National Bank, of Brooklyn. The check was returned marked "No account."

on the City National Bank, of Brooklyn. The check was returned marked "No account."

F. W. Freedman, of 172 Broadway, also regrets having received a call from the young man. He let him have $142 worth of jewelry on memorandum which he failed to account for.

Cowperthwait's furniture house sent him $110 worth of furniture and a carpet on payment of $11 down. The furniture was afterwards found in possession of a second-hand dealer, but the firm managed to recover the carpet.

Mosler, Bowen & Co., safe dealers on Broadway, welcomed him as a castomer, and furnished him with a $120 burglar-proof safe. They were paid $1 on account, but were successful in recovering the safe.

Harris stopped at the fashionable Hanover House, $12 Livingston street, Brooklyn, but disappeared between daylight and darkness the first of the week, since which time a detective has paid several visits to his late office and boarding place in hopes of finding him, but without success.

One of Harris's weaknesses appears to have been an ambition to become a theatrical manager. He organized a company to produce "An Arabian Night," and secured dates at Haverstraw, Bayshore, Patchogue and other places in close proximity to town. He billed himself as "C. J. Weldon, manager," and ordered his mail sent to the office of a theatrical paper.

The Jewellers Protective Association have an officer looking him up. They think that a number of other jewelry houses besides those mentioned have been victimised, and that his dealings with jewellers alone will amount to over $1,000. In visiting various pawnbrokers the officers came across new jewelry pawned by a young man answering his description.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN TEXAS.

(By Associated Press.)
BONHAM, Tex., Aug. 23.--A horrible BONHAM. Tex., Aug. 23.—A horrible double tragedy occurred here last night.

E. D. McNitt, who has lost both less and one hand, has lived in Bonham for a year past and has earned a living by peddling candy on the street. Before coming here he lived with a family named Martin in Arkansas. Martin and his wife separated, and Mrs. Martin came to this city with her three children. McNitt fourowed her and tried to get her to marry him, but she persistent.

Betting St. Starters. Tinge. 100 (R. Doggest). 5-1 8-5 2 Golden Rod. 55 (Griffin). .even 1-2 3 Maretta. 109 (A. Clayton). 15-1 8-1 6 Oity Gamen. 100 (Reiff). 6-1 25-1 6 Finsh. 85 (J. Davis). 15-1 6-1 7 Pontlear. 85 (Lew). 15-1 4-1 1 Export. 85 (A. Brown). 5-1 15-1 4-1 1 Export. 85 (A. Brown). 5-0 15-1 15-1 6-1 7 Fingle led from start to finish at dren. McNitt foulowed her and tried to get her to marry him, but she persistent-ly refused. McNitt finally became half crazy with jealousy, and last night he procured a room in the house where Mrs. Martin lived. This morning Mrs. Martin lived. This morning Mrs. Martin was found on the floor by her bed in a great pool of blood with her throat cut from ear to ear, and by her throat cut from ear to ear, and by her side. With his handless arm around her waist and in his hand a bloody razor, lay McNitt with a gash in his throat, dead.

Handicap aweepstakes of $20 each with $1.000 added; for three-year-olds and upward; one mile dead.

On a chair near by was an axe. It is supposed that McNitt entered the room, struck the woman with the axe, then pulled her off the bed. cut her throat with the razor and ended his own life with the same instrument.

THIRD RACE.

Handicap sweepstakes of $20 each. with $1,000 added; for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a furious.

Starters.

Starters.

Betting St. Hif. Fin. Don Alonso, 122 (Bims). 3-5 1-8 2 25 can be structured. 101 (Reiff. 2-1 8-5 1 3 can be structured. 101 (Reiff. 2-1 8-5 1 3 can be structured. 102 can be structured. 103 can be structured. 103 can be structured. 103 can be structured. 104 can be structured. 105 can be structur auction by William Seemuller & Co., auctioneers, of Baltimore. There was only one old, and that for $400,000 by N. P. Bond, representing the Reorganiza-tion Committee of the bondholders.

Every Room That

Every Roomer That

should be represented in The World tomorrow. Every 14 words (30 cents) of Houses and Rooms advertising gets free insertion in The Evening World-gets one insertion in over 450,000 Worlds-for it's our "House and Home Day."

Lacks a Roomer,

Lacks a Room

BADGER GANG HELD. HE NEVER CAME BACK. BY FOUR LENGTHS

Race and Makes the Bookmakers Weary.

Alleged Assault Upon Tod Sloans.

RACE TRACK, SHEEPSHEAD BAY, Aug. 29.-Racing began to-day with a decisive win by a favorite with the secmember of the Amaranth Club and ond choice filling the place very com

The bookmakers began to look weary Favorites won six of the seven races yesterday, and long lines of winners stretched out in front of the cashiers. To-day the lines were just as long. The talent regarded Harry Reed as vented many from playing him. They ran as the public picked them. Harry Reed has regained his old form an opportunity to ride his first winning second had not Richardson changed his filly to swerve.

Tod Sloane went before before a Police

Tod Sloane went before before a Police
Justice at Sheepshead Bay last night and secured a warrant for the arrest of Starter Jimmy Rowe. The warrant was executed at the track this afternoon, and Rowe gave bonds to appear in court at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.
Sloane said this afternoon:
"Rowe certainly meant it when he struck me with the whip for he called me a foul name when he did. It was certainly intentional, otherwise I should never have even made a complaint to the stewards." Sloane says that Rowe's whip raised great welts on his body. It is hard to believe, nevertheless, that Rowe intended to hurt the boy.
Golden Rod was a real good thing in the second race, on the strength of reports that she had beaten The Sage in their work. Even money was eagerly taken.
Tinge and Paladin were second choices

in their work.

Tinge and Paladin were second choices at 5 to 1 each. Tinge led the field from the start and was never caught. Griffin worked hard with Golden Rod, but never got nearer than a length of the leader. Maretta was third.

First RACE.

Jealous Man Kifled Himself and the Woman He Loved.

1.01 3-5. Mutuels paid: Straight, $8.80; place, $5.40; third, $5.50. May Day filly paid $5.75 for a place, and $7.25 third. Roundelay paid $11.90.

with the same instrument.

B. AND E. S. RAILROAD SOLD.

Bought for $400,000 by N. P.

Bought for

You read The Evening World! Do you read the Sunday World?

OPENING THE CIRCUS.

An Unparalleled Attraction Has Been Secured for This Season.

WILL SIT THERE NO MORE.

House Discharged To-Day.

The last Grand Jury to sit in the old at 1.20 o'clock this afternoon by Recorder Smyth. It was the last of all the Grand Juries that had served in the old struc ture, and but few spectators gathered in Part I. to see the inquisitors dismissed and hear the Recorder's little speech. The Grand Jury stood before the Recorder, who said it was forty-one years ago since the Court of General Ses-sions had been first held in the old building. He referred to the large num ber of Grand Juries that had sat in the old Court-House and the vast number of cases that had been passed upon by the Court. On Tuesday next, he said, the new Grand Jury would be sworn in, and Criminal Court Building. It was the first time, said the Recorder, that the first time, said the Recorder, that the city had furnished adequate accommodations for the Court of General Sessions, and the new edifige was a fine one. He was not aware, he said, of any scandal connected with its construction. That ended the formal farewell to the old Court-Housa.

The indictments found were of a miscellaneous character, and included about all the crimes in the catalogue except murder.

except murder.

Among the true bills was one against Philip Kuhl for perjury. He was a witness before the Lexow Committee, and testified against Policeman Weinberg, to whom he said he had paid $6 for the purpose of obtaining a concert hall license.

Louis Wiens is said to have made an affidavit that Kuhl had sworn before Police Justice Grady that he was pose-Police Justice Grady that he was pos-sessed of $600 worth of property at 425 Sixth avenue, when he gave ball to that amount for Louisa Martini on July 18, 1833, when she was arrested for keeping a disorderly house in East Fifty-ninth street, when, in fact, Kuhl had only $100 worth of furniture, and there was a mort-gage of $75 upon it.

VAMOOSE VS. NOW THEN.

The Piyers May Have a Sorth Ince on the Hudson for Fun.

An impromptu, but decidedly interesting race will be contested, it is said, this evening between two of the swiftest steam yachts affoat-Vamoose and Now

Both yachts were lying in Tebo's basin last night, so the story goes, when Capt. Hale was bantered by one of the Now Then crew, recarding the relative speed of the two flyers.Capt. Hale has stand-ing orders from Owner Frank T. Morrill to race anything affoat, and promptly accepted.

When Mr Morrill boards his yacht at West Twenty-third street about 5 o'clock this afternoon, she will proceed up the river slowly, until J. E. Addicks, the Boston man, who purchased the Now Then from Norman L. Monro, boards his yessel vessel.

Abreost of Spuyten Duyvil throttles will yanked open and the swift craft will shoot up the river thirty miles and then back at top speed.

The test will be particularly interesting as furnishing a line in the measure of Vamoose against Norwood. No money is involved in to-night's 'scrib'. money is involved in to-night's 'scrub."

TO SEE BRUNEAU DIE.

Peasants Encamped in the Streets Near the Doomed Abbe's Cell. (By Associated Press.)

LAVAL, Department of Mayenne France, Aug. 28.-This town to-day is full of people who are waiting to see as much as possible of the execution of Bruneau, formerly Vicar of the Church of Entrammes, who was convicted at the Mayenne Assize Court here on July 13 last of murder, robbery and arson. anxious to witness the execution have brought food enough with them to last several days and have camped in the streets, where they spend their time sleeping, drisking and eating or else surging about the jail, singing songs which have the eternally repeated refrain: "Bruneau, it is his head we want," and shouting coarse lokes or roaring under the prisoner's window.

A large force of troops is present in order to maintain as much order as possible, and if there is no reprieve the execution of Abbe Bruneau will take place early to-morrow morning. anxious to witness the execution have Cleveland Ready to Snatch Victory or Anything.

Reform at Pelo Grounds in Starting Fifteen Minutes Earlier.

Meckin Will Hurl at Tebeau's Men Against Cuppy.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Aug. stacked against the Giants this after noon in the second game of this series to-day was that it began at 3.45 quarter of an hour earlier than usual, and yet that is is fifteen minutes to It would be infinitely better were the games to begin at 3.30. It is very dark when the games are finished these late days.

order Cuppy, p.

Umpire—Mr. Hurst.
Cleveland went to the bat.
First Inning—Childs, base on balls.
Burkett, Sase on balls. McKean singled to left, scoring Childs, but Burkett was out. Burke to Davis. McKean got to second on the throw. Tebeau singled to right and McKean scored. Tebeau stole second. McGarry filed to Burke.
McAleer foul filed to Doyle. Two runs.

PIRATES AT BROOKLYN.

teln and Ehret the Opposing Twirlers in Eastern Park.

(Special to The Evening World.) EASTERN PARK, PROOKLYN, N Y., Aug. 29.-The rittsburg Pirates went to take a fall out of the Bridegrooms this afternoon, and give the management a run for their money.

It is expected that Anderson, of the Haverhill team, will be here to-morrow and cover the left garden for the home club. Steern, the Brown University lad, was tried as a Pirate at short to-day. Mack was unable to play because of his injuries yesterday.

To-morrow is ladies day, and two game will be played with the Imoky

City aggregation.
City aggregation.
The batting order:
Plitaburg.
Donovan, rf.
Smith, lf.
Shindle, 3b.
Beckley, lb.
Stengel, cf.
Shoch, 2b.
Weaver, 3b.
Weaver, 3b.
Tredway, lf.
La Chance, lb.
Steer, ss.
Stein, p.
Steefe.

OWENS HANGED IN EFFIGY.

Supposed to Have Been Done by Breckinridge's Friends.

(By Associated Press.)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 29.-A special to the Evening Post from Richmond. didate for Congress against W. C. P. Breckinridge, was hanged in effigy here last night. The figure was found hang-ing from a telegraph wire in the Court-House square, opposite the Wills House, and it is supposed to have been the work of Col. Breckinridge's sympa-

Londing Coal Under U. S. Protection

GGIAYSON, h. Ang. 25.—The fearers and the fearer and the second of the s

PAMLICO, 2.10, DEAD.

The Famous Trotting Stallion Ex pires at Charter Oak Park.

(By Associated Press.)
HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 29.—Pamlico, 2.10, the greatest race stallion in America, died at his quarters, at Charter Oak track this morning, as a re suit of a congestive chill.

The horse showed symptoms of illness Monday, and despite the best veterinary service obtainable, grew steadily worse until this imorning, when he died in great agony, spaamodic colic setting in at the last.

Richard Curtis, his driver, and Marshall Wright, his groom, were much affected at his death; in fact, there was not a dry eye among those present.

M'CAFFREY'S STRANGE WILL

eft Property to Children Whose Names He Had Forgotten.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—The will of John McCafferty, which was probated June is one of the strangest legal documents ever filed in the probate court lso a director of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank. He died June 1 at the in the plumbing business at 17 De ing is known as it was suposed Mr. Mc-Caerffy's siter and one daughter were his only immediate heirs.

A putative eleven-year-old son of the testator by his third wife is given a legacy of $40,000 and an annuity of $2,000. Further complicating matters. One of the missing children known as Nancy Riley is said to have been kidnapped and taken to Ireland fifty years ago. Others of the heirs are thought to be dead and frequent family quarrels and estrangements add to the muddle in which the big estate is left.

Why, it was difficult to get in myself. The house was apparently closed," was the reply.

"The shutters were closed," he continued, "the doors locked, and after ininging the bell, I was let in either by Mrs. Schubert or the cook.

"The awnings were taken down and

STRUCK HIM ON THE HEAD.

Gaguires Skull Fractured by a Falling Block of Wood.

HE MADE HIS AT THE RACES.

Ward Man Burns Tells a Better Story of His Wealth Than Doherty.

WON $3,000 WITH A $50 BILL.

Had Sure Tips from a Beckmaker Whe Gave Him Five Straight Winners.

WELLMAN IS INCREDULOUS.

But the Policeman Sticks to His Story and Challenges an Investigation.

Police Captain Stephenson, with his lawyers, Ira Shafer and John Vincent, were again on hand at Police Head quarters when, at 10.45 this for s case was called. Mr. Shafer said he was ready to pro-ceed. He objected to the term "ready to proceed to trial," and intimated that ne should demand a postponement." "These charges are long, numerous and serious," said Mr. Shafer. "Bri bery is charged, and if the charge is true the State prison yawns for him. Mr. Wellman said the Stephe ase would soon be reached. prosecutor that we are to be compe to wait here till he is ready to notions?" Mr. Shafer asked.

Devery and Glennon were still on, but would be concluded in an hour or two He suggested, however, that Capt. Stephenson be allowed to plead, and these a time set for his trial, but the Board decided to go on with the Board decided to go on with the Board and adjourn the trial of Capt.

and adjourn the trial of Capt. Ste This will allow the Board to held of Burns. Henry Wendling, of 165 East On dred and Seventy-third street, and for merly of 60 Rivington street, was called here. The testator was one of the di-merty of 60 Rivington street, was called rectors of the Grand Trunk Railway and as the first witness of the day. He tes-

"How did you find it?" Mr. House asked.
"Why, it was difficult to get in myself. The house was apparently closed," was the reply.
"The shutters were closed," he continued, "the doors locked, and after ringing the bell, I was let in either by Mrs. Schubert or the cook.
"The awnings were taken down and the house was gloomy. My work took me to all parts of the house, and I saw no limates nor any sign of business."

Mr. Wellman contented himself with showing that the plumber had testified exactly like this in the trial of Capt. Cross.
It was shown that in the Cross trial

Gottlieb Ottenberger, a carpenter, of 52 East Fourth street, was held in Jefferson Market Court this morning to await the result of injuries inflicted upon Rox Gaguire, of 528 Broome street, who is at St. Vincent's Hospital, suffering from a fractured skull.

Ottenberger sawed off the end of a beam yesterday at the Germania Theatre, 14 Eighth street. The block fell upon the head of Gaguire, who was also employed there.

Two Killed in a Cave-In.

(By Associated Fress).

READING, Pa. Aug. 28.—A slate quarry at Sirelaville, beyond the Northern Berks County in caved in last night, killing two men. David Williams. aged fifty-five years, the superint thirty years. The two were sixty feet below the surface when the seedent happened.

Fell from the Third Story.

Mrs. Berks Miller, aged hitty-five, while hancing out clothes on a line from the third-story winder of 54 East Eightth street, at 8 elock the word's the sustained internal injuries. Be as a shade not be really a sea taken to the Freshyterian Hospital.

Ready Kicked by a Horse.

Reward Gerry, tsentieth street, at 8 elock the word's the sustained internal injuries. Be as a state of the street word's the sustained internal injuries. Be as a state of the street word's the sustained internal injuries. Be as a state of the street of the sustained and substitute of the sustained internal injuries. Be as a state of the sustained in the

(Continued on Sixth Page,)